What single accomplishment are you most proud of, why?

I am most proud of the position I hold currently with such an exclusive company, in a demanding and defining industry. From sky to sea, this is one amazing team, and three amazing locations. I have grown exponentially since starting in 2014 as a prep cook. Six years later, gaining the title of executive Chef is really an accomplishment that gives me a great feeling of success and gratitude.

Who was the inspiration in your life?

My true inspiration is my daughter. She inspires me to be the best chef, father and man I can possibly be. Everything I do is to make her proud to have me as her father so that perhaps one day, how I am, or something I have done in my life/career can inspire her to do something great in her life.

Who was the inspiration in your life?

The person who inspired me to become the successful woman I am today is my father. He has taught me the most important lesson, and that is to be an independent, educated woman. He taught me that nothing is impossible; if you set your mind to your dreams, goals and inspiration, you will be able to accomplish anything. Against all odds, my father came from a Third World country, and he worked very hard to become a successful businessman. Despite many challenges and obstacles he has faced in life, he still manages to strive to become a better version of himself. He has influenced my life by teaching me valuable lessons and showing me the ins and outs of life.
